President's Letter

"Artists, by their free expressions, encourage others to be free. This is the quality that makes works of art enduring." Marty Rubin

I can't think of a better venue to encourage others to be free than our "Midsummer Night's Dream" event at the Pioneers Museum. I saw artists encouraging each other in ways that we all found unexpected, using tools and products that some of us have never tried before. And, so many of you got to engage with the public and encourage them to explore artistic avenues they may not have thought to explore until they met you that evening. It was truly our mission statement in action as a society. It is through that freedom of expression that you encourage others and all of us to fully explore our own freedom to create. I hope, as the quote above would suggest, that the experience will endure.

Nancy Neale, President

The variety of demonstrations and information was as diverse as our membership. To see everyone making the rounds and asking questions, talking, as well as getting to try perhaps a new color, brush or marker was genuinely inspirational. As much as we were trying new things in art, we as a group also enjoyed our meal provided by the food trucks that joined us that evening. It was so fun to talk about the different foods, try a little bite and be inspired by the foods of the evening as well. The pictures that were taken at the event were so colorful and showcased the evening beautifully. I hope it is something we as a group may want to do again next year or, at the very least, found it to be a valuable way to bring the art of watercolor and passion as artists to the community as a whole.

Thank you to each and every one of our members who came out in support of the event and to everyone who demonstrated...a round of applause from all of us! Have a wonderful summer!

General Meeting Minutes/Event of June 20, 2018

Nancy Neale for Rob Grishow, Secretary

Board Meeting: No Board Meeting was held during June.

General Meeting: The General Meeting was called to order at 6:18 PM on the grounds at the Pioneers Museum as part of our "Midsummer Night's Dream" paint-out event.

Guests: Many friends and family members, as well as the general public, helped make this a successful event.

Hosts & Chefs: Food provided and served by Mateos Catering, High Quality Catering and Potato Potato Food Trucks.

Minutes: May's General Meeting Minutes were not brought up for approval.

Treasurer's Report: No Report

Committee Reports

Marketing: Stephanie Beardslee was in attendance filming our event to upload a link to the website.

Membership: No Report

International Watermedia: No Report

Nominating Committee: Karen is the Chair for our Nominating Committee this year and, although she is not here tonight, we do have a full slate of officers running for your vote in the upcoming year. Nancy will run for one more term as President and Cathleen Savage is running for Vice President with John Martin running for one more term as Treasurer and Rob Grishow agreeing to another term as our Secretary. Hopefully everyone will take the opportunity to vote and ensure we have a quorum. (Election Ballot for PPWS Officers for 2018-2019 Page 10)

Library: Myra Patin advised us by email that there would be no library services.

Program: Paint-Out Event, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," on the West grounds of the Pioneers Museum from 5:30 to 8:00 PM. (See Page 5)

Old Business: Nancy asked if we have any volunteers for a bylaws revision committee. A request for volunteers was sent by email to everyone a couple of weeks ago? We were planning on updating any outdated language and duties and make it more in keeping with our current structure as well as changing the membership renewal term to match the calendar year. So far no one has volunteered. If we don't have any volunteers who wish to work on a committee, we will table any changes to the bylaws to some other time. Those in attendance agreed to table any bylaws revisions to a later date.

The pickup date for the artists participating in the Gold Hill Mesa Show will be on Monday, August 6, from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM. We will be sending an email out as well as posting this date and times to the Facebook page to inform everyone. If you haven't gotten over to see the works hanging, it is highly recommend as the show looks great.

Send your artist accomplishments for the past month to Johanna for the newsletter as we don't have our baskets tonight.

New Business: Mary Piche will conduct our August 15 meeting which will feature a silent auction and rummage sale of art supplies and artworks. We will also have our usual August potluck. John and Nancy will be MIA as that is three days before their wedding!

The meeting portion of the event was adjourned at 6:30 PM. Otherwise, everyone was encouraged to have a wonderful evening and thank you to everyone who is painting and has joined us this evening!

Respectfully Submitted,
Nancy Neale, President
for Rob Grishow, Secretary

In Memory of Marian Busey

It is with deep sadness that we learned of the passing on June 3, 2018, of Marian Busey at the age of 106. Marian was one of the original founders of the PPWS, an amazing artist and friend to many. She will be missed.

Mary Sue Copeland had a painting accepted to be published by the 2019 Colorado National Monument Calendar. She will also have an exhibit at the Cheyenne State Park Visitors Center, 410 JL Ranch Heights Road, during July and August.

Lee Murphy has been represented by Gallery 113 since March and was a featured artist there in July.

Dennis Palsgrove completed a commission for a woman who contacted him through our PPWS Facebook page. She wanted a painting of Pikes Peak from the Garden of the Gods to present to her son. Beautifully done Dennis!

He also had his painting, "Zoltar Speaks," accepted for exhibition into Southern California Inspirations, Past and Present, at Oceanside Museum of Art, National Watercolor Society.

Mike was also thrilled to receive an acceptance for his painting, "Forget the Heat," for the 45th Annual Rocky Mountain National Watermedia Exhibition. This acceptance into a Colorado exhibition qualifies him for signature membership in the PPWS! Mike had yet another acceptance, "Watching TV," into the 50th Annual Watercolor West International Juried Exhibition.

Hazel Stone received an acceptance into the 50th Annual Watercolor West International Juried Exhibition.

Cindy Welch's painting, "Colorado Craft," received an acceptance into the 45th Annual Rocky Mountain National Watermedia Exhibition. She was also thrilled to see her poster painting, "100th Douglas County Fair & Rodeo," on the LED sign at the Outlets at Castle Rock.

Lorraine Watry recently sold three watercolor paintings and was featured as the Watercolor Ambassador in the July 10 edition of American Watercolor Weekly. Congratulations Lori! <https://americanwatercolor.net/ambassador-of-the-week-lorraine-watry/>

"Splish Splash" is an American White Pelican that I photographed at the Tracy Aviary in Salt Lake City, UT. The bright orange beak was the perfect counterbalance to the neutral colors. Re-creating the bubbles, sparkles, and movement of the water was both challenging and exciting.

Susan DeSantis Marion has painted exclusively in watercolor on paper for 45 years. After attending Kutztown University of Pennsylvania's Bachelor of Fine Arts program, she went on to a career in graphic design. Through the years working in this field, and later as a counselor, Sue continued to paint and exhibit her work at galleries, art fairs and other venues.

Sue's current work features large-scale closeups of flowers and everyday objects chosen for their unique visual features.

A member of the Pikes Peak Watercolor Society, Colorado Springs Art Guild, and the Mountain Artists in Woodland Park, Sue works out of her home studio in Florissant inspired by the mountains, her high-altitude perennial garden, husband, and two dogs.

For Sue, painting is a meditation on the subject, an archive of her presence with the subject, and an invitation for the viewer to join that experience.
