President's Letter

“A good teacher is like a candle – it consumes itself to light the way for others.”
Mustafa Kemal Atatürk

What better way to fuel your inner candle than to participate in, or even just attend, our upcoming Second Annual Midsummer Night's Dream event on the beautiful west lawn of the Pioneers Museum. We have twenty of our members signed up to paint live in several mediums, and there is no such thing as too many. So, if you would like to volunteer, or just to impromptu bring your things and sit down and paint, please do! We will have a supply of greeting card stock. If you get the desire to pick up brush and create along, the opportunity will be available to all! I cannot wait to see all of you at our June 19 outdoor meeting at the Pioneers Museum and to show the public all the amazing talent that our Pikes Peak Watercolor Society embodies.

Nancy Neale Martin, President

International Watermedia 2019 is in full swing with acceptances identified and intake coming up fast on May 30 from 9:00 AM to 12:00 Noon. We look forward to unpacking shipped works and receiving your hand carried pieces on that day at Pikes Peak Library District, Library 21c . The exhibition opens on June 4, and our Reception and Awards Ceremony will be on June 13.

This June is all about watercolor and the appreciation of watercolor...please join us! We are eager to show everyone who we are and what Pikes Peak Watercolor Society is all about.

General Meeting Minutes May 15, 2019

Rob Grishow, Secretary

Board Meeting: None

General Meeting: The General Meeting was called to order at 6:15 PM by Nancy Neale Martin, President, at Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Guests: None

Hosts & Chefs: Thanks to our food committee chairs, Jean Forsyth and Barb Midyett, and to our volunteers, for the outstanding salad bar. Tonight's hosts were Judy and Larry Swanson. Another salad bar is planned for September, and a sign-up sheet was passed around.

Minutes: April General Meeting Minutes were approved as published in the May 2019 newsletter.

Treasurer's Report: John Martin, Treasurer, reports that we currently have $8,523.19 in operating funds with total deposits of $27,668.13.

Committee Reports

Marketing: None

Membership: Sue Andzik was presented her Signature Membership certificate and pin by Nancy and Kang Lee Sheppard, Signature Chair.

Library: Myra Patin reminded us to send her ideas for more library items. We will have an open library at the June meeting paint-out at the Pioneer Museum.

International Watermedia:

International Watermedia will soon be upon us, and everything is coming together nicely. Intake will be on Thursday, May 30. Outtake is scheduled for Wednesday, July 31. The exhibition will open Tuesday, June 4, with the Opening and Awards Reception on Thursday, June 13, at Library 21c. (See Page 7)

Mary Piche and Joan Judge collected donations for PPWS Presidents and PPWS Members Awards for Watermedia. (See Page 4)

Members' Show: None

Nominating Committee: Thanks to Karen Standridge, Nominating Chair,

we have a full slate of officers running for the PPWS 2019/2020 Board. Cathleen Savage volunteered to be President, Rob Grishow as Vice President, Norah Daily Roscamp as our new Secretary, and John Martin to continue as Treasurer.

New Business: Our June meeting will be on the west grounds of the Pioneers Museum on Tejon Street. This second annual "Midsummer Night's Dream" will feature food trucks and a paint-out with many PPWS members demonstrating. Nancy showed us the beautiful graphic created by Rob Grishow for this year's event. (See Page 5)

Congratulations were extended by Nancy to two PPWS members who received awards at the Colorado Watercolor Society 28th Annual 2019 State Watercolor Exhibition. Pattie Bowler was awarded Second Place and Carol Pitts received Third Place.

Liz Huffman has a one-person show currently hanging at Brookdale Skyline through August 31. There will be an Art Exhibit Party on June 27. (See Page 7)

Lorraine Watry brought in the issue of International Artist magazine featuring her eight-page article, which she passed around for all to see.

Myra Patin announced that her frame shop is up and running. She is offering a full range of services to anyone who might need assistance in getting a painting framed. Myra will do everything from complete framing to helping assemble your store-bought frames.

The Sunny Vista Show deadline is on May 22. The opening reception will be on Friday, June 14.

Joan Judge was thrilled to have been accepted into this year's Governor's Show, in which three of her paintings were sold.

Nancy spoke about the Annual Rotary Club's Butterfly Flight competition, for which she served as a juror this year.

Our member, Betsy Cook, is with the Alzheimers Association and runs an art program in local senior living communities. She is putting together an art show which will travel to local venues showcasing their watercolor works.

Old Business: Congratulations to the May winner of the "workshop for a new member of two years or less," Nell Houser. (See Page 7)

Nancy also thanked Nell for her generosity by bringing in Panera breads and rolls for our members to take home.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:47 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Rob Grishow, Secretary

PIKES PEAK WATERCOLOR
SOCIETY PRESIDENTS AWARD

Funded by donations Past and Present
Presidents of our society

And

SOCIETY MEMBERS AWARD

Funded by donations by our current membership

We are asking for your support and generosity in our efforts to present two special artists with a cash award for a job well done. No donation would be too small, and it is not too late.

Thanks to those who brought a check or cash to our May 15, 2019, meeting. You can still send a check to PPWS, PO Box 355, Colorado Springs, CO 80903.

Who knows? You may be the recipient of the first Presidents Award or first Members Award!

Thank you,

International Watermedia 2019

Programs

Reveille Kennedy, Program Chair

May Program:

Reveille Kennedy, Program Chair, had asked our Past-President and signature member, Pattie Bowler, to do our May demonstration. Pattie showed us her process for abstract acrylics on canvas, as well as an abstract watercolor on paper.

Starting with the canvas, Pattie generously applied gloss varnish and alcohol on deep panels, spreading it over the surface and sides using a large brush. To that surface, she added Golden tube and liquid acrylics, usually using only three colors and spreading with a credit card. Spritzing with alcohol and applying heat with a hair dryer or heat gun can yield interesting textures. For Pattie, it is an intuitive process with multilayers of color, and a painting will be worked until she is satisfied with it no matter how many layers are needed nor how long it takes.

For watercolor, Pattie suggested using torn collage pieces to get shapes onto the paper to give one a starting point. On a half sheet of paper, she demonstrated her watercolor application process using her favorite Holbein watercolor pigments.

Pattie had many tools and tricks in her bag, and she entertained and amazed us. Thank you Pattie!

June Program:

Our June meeting will be at the Pioneers Museum.

Our 2nd Annual, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," event on the west grounds (the Tejon Street side) of the Pioneers Museum is a perfect venue to engage the public in art. Many of our members have signed up to paint live and have the public watch, ask questions and interact together for an evening of artistic sharing. If you haven't signed up, you can still bring your supplies and paint. Nancy will bring greeting card stock, generously provided by Karen Standridge, to give everyone the opportunity to pick up a brush and paint.

We will be having a catered meal that evening provided by the food trucks that will be joining us for the event.

It will be a night of art to remember with so many member artists sharing their artistic journey with each other and the public. This event will be our June meeting, and we will have lots of fun again this year.

Nancy Neale Martin asks that you please join all of us as members of the Pikes Peak Watercolor Society on June 20, from 5:30 to 8:00 PM. Let's show the public all the amazing talent we have to offer.

Mary Taylor

Color and light have always been magic to me. Seeing things through a kaleidoscope is always changing and still fascinating. Working in watercolor gives me the opportunity to watch the colors greet each other on the paper. Using the batik method adds that extra spark for me.

I grew up in Colorado, graduated from University of Colorado in the medical field, and am now living my dream of creating. I have lived in Pennsylvania, Iowa and Colorado, and have recently moved to Frisco, Texas, with my supportive husband to be closer to our children and grandchildren, but still spend summers in Colorado. I am a signature member of the Pikes Peak Watercolor Society and a member of the Colorado Watercolor Society and Southwestern Watercolor Society. My art has grown with the teachings of Jane E. Jones, Tom Owen, Linda Baker, John Salminen, and many others.

PPWS Meeting & Pattie Bowler Demo - May 15, 2019

Nancy Neale Martin, President, conducted our well-attended May meeting at Immanuel Lutheran Church. Our plentiful salad bar social was enjoyed by everyone. Sue Andzik was presented her Signature Membership certificate and pin by Nancy and Kang Lee Sheppard, Signature Chair.

Reveille Kennedy, Program Chair, had asked our Past-President and signature member, Pattie Bowler, to do our May demonstration.
